THE AMAZING PADDLE-WHEELER

ALL ABOARD!

SOAK IN THE HISTORY AT OAK ALLEY

WEDNESDAY 3 JUNE 2026 (B, L, D) CRUISING THE LOWER MISSISSIPPI AMERICAN HERITAGE PADDLE-WHEELER (7 nights)

Embark on a voyage along the Lower Mississippi River, one brimming with excitement and discovery, stretching from the vibrant streets of New Orleans, Louisiana, to the soulful rhythms of Memphis, Tennessee. Our intimate river boat accommodates no more than 150 guests. An onboard historian will share the many stories of Southern culture and history, while local guides will unveil hidden gems during shore excursions.

Highlights Include:

- Step aboard our ship today, ready to explore the Mississippi.
- As we cruise along today, we enjoy a dynamic range of musical entertainment, welcome reception and a chance to explore our beautiful ship.
- Today is your day to unwind and take it all in. Glide effortlessly along the Mighty Mississippi, surrounded by breathtaking panoramas of cottonwood trees and graceful blue herons.
- Engage in captivating enrichment sessions and lively onboard events. Delight in gourmet cuisine and refreshing cocktails.
- As Mark Twain famously said, it's a day with "nothing to hang a worry or a fret upon" – so let go and embrace the adventure!

THURSDAY 4 JUNE 2026 (B, L, D) OAK ALLEY

Highlights Include:

- Visit Oak Alley, an iconic house renowned for its treelined avenue, stretching majestically across the Mississippi River.
- From its canopy of 300-year-old oaks to its vast open spaces, Oak Alley's landscape tells the story of a southern plantation over time. Over 200 years ago, Oak Alley was just a land claim on a map and has since served many purposes, including as a sugar plantation, a rice farm, a chicken farm, a cattle ranch, and a country home.
- Today, Oak Alley is a National Historic Landmark dedicated to preserving and interpreting the history of its inhabitants. With an emphasis on its time as a sugar plantation, visitors are invited to walk under its iconic alley, explore the exhibits, interact with staff, and leave with a richer, more powerful understanding of this plantation's complex history.

CRUISING THE MIGHTY MISSISSIPPI

CHURCH IN ST. FRANCISVILLE

NATCHEZ BRIDGE

AMAZING MANSIONS IN NATCHEZ

FRIDAY 5 JUNE 2026 (B, L, D) ST. FRANCISVILLE

A nationally recognised historic district can be found in the quaint town of St. Francisville, situated along the banks of the Mississippi River.

Highlights Include:

- Enjoy free time to walk around and enjoy St Francisville including Grace Church and Cemetery, quilting shop and gift shops.
- Step into the haunting beauty of the Myrtles estate, built in 1796, renowned as one of America's most haunted homes.
- Myrtles, built in 1796, envelopes one with a complete sense of peace and tranquility. However, it is reputed to be one of the most haunted homes in America. Marvel at its architectural splendour, adorned with exquisite details and surrounded by ancient live oak trees.
- Then listen to the musicians on board, who made this region so memorable from its soulful tunes to foot-tapping beats.
- Opera, ballet, Lieder recitals and festival concerts are presented over five weeks, while the season's premieres are also brought back to the stage.

SATURDAY 6 JUNE 2026 (B, L, D) NATCHEZ

Natchez, the oldest settlement on the Mississippi River, has more antebellum houses than any other place in the United States. Nestled along the Lower Mississippi, it is a treasure trove of history. Founded in 1716, the town flourished with affluent planters erecting grand mansions.

Highlights Include:

- Experience a multitude of National treasures, historic sites, and local points of interest by coach.
- Natchez boasts more National Landmarks than any other town in Mississippi. Begin our exploration at the mighty Natchez Bluffs overlooking the Mississippi River. Our guide will entertain us with local lore and legends, in addition to historical facts.
- View historic architectural gems, African American sites, local favourites, and a few quirky places.
- Complete the experience with a guided exploration of historic Rosalie Mansion, so exquisite, she's known as "Our Lady on The Bluff."
- Fort Rosalie & Trading Post - Fort Rosalie was built by the French in 1716 within the territory of the Natchez Native Indians and it was part of the French colonial empire, becoming the first settlement in present day Natchez, Mississippi. Walk the hallowed grounds of the long-gone fort and enjoy perusing the gift items of the modern trading post.
