National Military Park, Vicksburg

NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA

We begin our journey in the vibrant city of New Orleans, also known as the Big Easy, where art and culture abound. The open-air artist colony proudly displays local works on the iron fence in Jackson Square, while the city's 45 museums carefully preserve its rich history.

OAK ALLEY, LOUISIANA

Once serving as an antebellum sugar cane homestead, Oak Alley Plantation is named after its most distinguishing feature, a row of 300-year-old oak trees. This leafy canopy forms a path leading to the Mississippi River. Restored to its 19th-century grandeur, this classic Greek Revival antebellum mansion is simply breathtaking.

Shore Excursion: The famous ancient oaks bordering the path to the mansion are our first sight upon stepping ashore. The perfectly aligned 300 year old trees form a canopy which set a particularly grand entrance for our arrival. Southern belles enjoying the shade of the leafy canopy greet us on arrival and are our guides for the day. In small groups, we wander through the antebellum plantation's many stately rooms and learn why it has earned the name "Grande Dame of the Great River Road." After the tour, we are invited to a special gathering with mint juleps on the west lawn before a visit to their popular gift shop which is known for their world-famous pralines.

Oak Alley Plantation

BATON ROUGE, LOUISIANA

This southern town charms with simple pleasures and unique treasures. Located on the bluffs of the Mississippi River, St. Francisville has been called "one of the 200 most beautiful small towns in America." Take a stroll through its historic center where two centuries of architecture and lifestyle are on display. Enjoy visits to restored antebellum mansions including Rosedown.

Shore Excursion: Rosedown Plantation, with its flowered path lined with towering oaks towards the Main House. We are greeted by our lively resident expert, Tammie Miller. Tammie delves deep into the family history of Daniel and Martha Turnbull and how their experiences helped shape the Main House into a home. There will be time after the tour to explore the grounds or relax in a rocking chair on the front porch with cold refreshments and some of Tammie's freshly made cookies.

NATCHEZ, MISSISSIPPI

Celebrating its 300th year, Natchez is a city full of history and Southern hospitality.
